Nation
Badar squad founder thought he was doing everyone a favour by conducting anti-vice raids. The authorities didn't think so. >15

The Star
people's paper

Winner mpi Malaysia Press Institute Kajai Award Top journalism award

TUESDAY 15 JANUARY 2019 PP1641/03/2013 (031549) (No. 21681) RM1.60 1300-88-7827 (Customer Service)

Teachers on cloud nine

Schools to decide if files are better in hard or soft copy

Some exams are replaced for Level 1 pupils

Senior assistants can pick the canteen operators

Better record-keeping and fewer files from now on

Ministry-vetted data to help ease chores

Schools get to decide what to do with slow learners

Schools have a say on classroom-based assessment reports

Students' attendance gets recorded online

Number of school committees reduced to a minimum

> See reports on Page 6

And 'Adik' turns one

Some visitors to Zoo Negara in Ampang, Selangor, were fortunate to 'celebrate' the birthday of Nuan Nuan's sister at the Giant Panda Conservation Centre. Ice shaving and bamboo shoots made up her birthday cake. Though her elder sister wasn't around, her parents Xing Xing and Liang Liang, both on loan from China since 2014, were. Nuan Nuan has returned to China. See report on Page 3. — AP

If you think his thesis is good, it may not be his

While a Master's student is out having fun, his thesis is getting done by writing service providers he has sourced on social media – for a fee that can come up to RM14,000 or more. While fellow students say the practice is unfair and unethical, one lawyer is calling it a crime. > See reports on Page 4

Star Exclusive