Game to party

Sept 4 a public holiday, says PM

The 12 days of fighting hard for medals came to an end. And it was time to party, to celebrate the record 145 gold medals Malaysia had won. It was a party that took the country down memory lane and set the patriotic mood for the next celebration – National Day today. The victorious athletes joined the crowd at the packed Bukit Jalil National Stadium to cheer as the Prime Minister declared the 29th SEA Games closed in a colourful, musical show. It's now over to the Philippines.
