

The people's paper Star

STAR2 Blooming sensation

Malaysian designer Jonathan Liang
— based in Paris — unveils a bright, cheerful collection. >2

OPS DAULAT: DAY 2

Kg Tanduo

- > A terrorist shot dead during gunfight at about 6.45am
- > Photographs of nine Sulu terrorists killed in Ops Daulat released. Bodies were found in a mass grave
- > Weapons used by gunmen also recovered
- > CID and forensic officers who went in to examine the bodies attacked by gunmen at about 1.45pm
- > Sources claim bodies of 50 Sulu intruders scattered within village

Kg Tanjung Batu

- > More Sulu terrorists killed during gunfights at three locations
- > It is believed some 15 gunmen could be hiding with families unable to leave the village

Kg Tanjung Labian

- > Some 30 military trucks with soldiers and APCs arrive in the afternoon
- > Villagers claim eight people in a blue pick-up truck were detained by security forces on Tuesday night
- > They claim a son of Raja Muda Azizmudie Kiram could be among those detained

Security swoop:

Policemen detaining a suspected Sulu gunman at the entrance of Kg Tanjung Labian. (Left) Part of the arms cache recovered by Malaysian security forces in Kg Tanduo.

Swinging into action:

Army personnel in an armoured vehicle moving into Kg Tanjung Batu.
— AZHAR MAHFOF / The Star

Sweep goes wider

Dozens of suspected sympathisers of the Sulu armed intruders have been arrested as Malaysian security forces expanded their mopping-up operations. Moving into a village neighbouring Kg Tanduo, police and military personnel had a shootout with a number of the terrorists in which some of them are believed to have been killed.

> See reports on Pages 2-14

TAGHeuer
SWISS AVANT-GARDE SINCE 1860

A COMMITMENT TO BENEFIT UN WOMEN
Cameron Diaz and TAG Heuer support UN Women and its mission to empower women worldwide.
To learn more please visit tagheuer.com